8 Trustee/Authorized Signer Signature

I hereby certify that the requested loan is not a taxable or a deemed distribution under the Internal Revenue Code, and that the loan complies with the plan document and all pertinent laws. I certify also that spousal consent (as required by Internal Revenue Code Section 417), if applicable, has been properly obtained and that the loan is not a prohibited transaction as defined in the Internal Revenue Code Section 4975 or under the Employee Retirement Income Security Act.

I hereby direct John Hancock Retirement Plan Services to pay to the Third Party Administrator currently on record the above referenced fee (if applicable). I understand that this fee will be deducted from the participant's account balance at the time of the distribution using standard withdrawal protocol, and will be held in the general business account of John Hancock Retirement Plan Services until paid to the Third Party Administrator. I hereby represent that this fee is in accordance with the fee schedule that has been approved by the plan's trustee or named fiduciary as reasonable and authorized under the terms of the plan.

On behalf of the Plan sponsor, the Plan and its related trust, and the Plan Trustee or named Fiduciary, I further agree to indemnify and hold harmless John Hancock Retirement Plan Services, its employees, agents, directors, and officers from any liability, penalties, and taxes that may be incurred as a result of the requested distribution giving rise to one or more prohibited transactions or for implementing requests (including, if applicable, a direct rollover request) based solely on the instructions provided on this form, or if any of the certifications provided on this form are incorrect.

Important Information about Loans

- It is the responsibility of the plan administrator to ensure that:
 - participant loan qualification requirements are met (according to the plan document);
 - each granted loan meets the tax law requirements and is not treated as a distribution;
 - if the participant named above has more than one outstanding loan or the loan requested on this form is used to refinance an outstanding loan, the loans collectively, as well as each of the prior loan and the additional loan, meet the applicable tax law requirements and are not treated as distributions under the participant's plan;
 - any restriction that the plan may have on the number of outstanding loans that a participant may have at any one time is complied with;
 - each plan loan is not a prohibited transaction;
 - John Hancock Retirement Plan Services will be notified if and when a loan is deemed to be a distribution for tax purposes. John Hancock Retirement Plan Services is not responsible for preparing and filing any tax reporting until and unless such notification has been provided by the plan administrator, and if such service is available under your contract.
- When John Hancock Retirement Plan Services receives a payment, we will reduce the Loan Account balance by the amount of the repayment. Loan repayments will be applied first to interest owing on the loan, and then to the principal. All loan repayments must be remitted through your plan trustee. Please do not send personal checks directly to John Hancock Retirement Plan Services.
- This loan request does not constitute a promissory note or loan agreement. The State of Florida imposes a Documentary Stamp Tax on retirement plan loans.
- The State of Florida imposes a Documentary Stamp Tax on retirement plan loans. If this tax applies to you, you are responsible for reporting and remitting payment to the Florida Department of Revenue by no later than the 20th of the month following the month in which you executed the loan instrument. For more information, visit the Florida Department of Revenue's website at www.myflorida.com/dor or call its Taxpayer Services.
