

bankcda Loans

REMINDER- Always send customers to Loan Officers or help set up a meeting. It is important to never promise anyone a loan, but you can inform them on the different types of loans that we offer.

bankcda is a designated Preferred Lender with the U.S. Small Business Administration. What that means is we can process your loans quickly and efficiently. Our SBA loan officers have many years of experience and can help design a loan program to help you and your business take full advantage of SBA loan benefits. Use your SBA Loan for business real estate, construction development, equipment, and more.
